DESTROYING AMALEK

FROM BELOW AND ABOVE ^{ב"ה}

*R. Eliezer taught, "If Israel repents, they will be redeemed...."
R. Yehoshua replied to him, "Even if they don't repent on their own, G-d will induce them to repent as He did with Haman and his decrees." (See Talmud, Sanhedrin 97b)*

It is disputed in the Talmud whether Moshiach's coming depends on our initiation or if G-d will "force" us into bringing the Redemption. However, after the Giving of the Torah, every Jew desires to follow the Torah and desires the Redemption. Therefore, even if G-d initiates the process, we will still be acting with complete sincerity.

Therefore, we must do all that we can do to bring Moshiach, but we also must ask G-d to initiate the process and do all that He can do to hasten the Redemption.
