GOOD MAZAL

The month of Menachem Av is particularly fit for the Redemption. The month is named after Moshiach, as our sages taught (Sanhedrin 98b), "Moshiach's name is Menachem." It is the month when Moshiach is born and his spirit (mazal) shines strongest. Furthermore, the astrological sign of Menachem Av is a lion. This indicates that "the Lion (G-d) shall come in the month of the lion and rebuild the Temple, which is called G-d's Lion."

(Yalkut Shimoni, Yirmiyahu, sec. 259)

Therefore, this is a particularly fitting time to ask G-d to bring Moshiach. We find a similar concept in the Torah reading of this time. On behalf of the twelve tribes, Moshe asked G-d to lead the Jewish People into the Land of Israel. Moshe's request was refused only so that we would complete our work throughout exile and reach an even higher plane. Now that this is complete, G-d is ready to grant our request.
