MOSHIACH: PERSON, TEACHER, AND KING

ב"ה

WAITING FOR US

After the passing of the Alter Rebbe, the Chassidim were sitting and lamenting their situation, saying, "Now how long will it take to bring Moshiach?" The Tzemach Tzedek overheard this comment and replied, "These are the words of Balaam, who said about Moshiach, 'I see him, but not soon.' We, on the other hand, believe that Moshiach can come at any moment. The Maggid of Mezritch could bring a new born child to have a complete fear of G-d, and the Baal Shem Tov himself could strike the fear of G-d into even a rock! They could have brought Moshiach, but they did not because G-d wants us to work and fulfill our mission. Nothing else is holding Moshiach back."

Moshiach is always ready to come. Although the righteous are constantly ready for Moshiach, G-d created the world for the efforts and struggles of the average individual. The goal is not merely that Moshiach should come, but that we should bring him.
