SPIRIT OF KING MOSHIACH

This day is the beginning of your work, a remembrance of the first day [of creation]. (Liturgy, Rosh Hashanah, Musaf)

The 25th of Elul is the first day of creation. On this day, G-d was alone in His world. Our task is to reveal, bit by bit, the G-dliness hidden in the world until G-d's unity is apparent once again.

The first day of creation also relates to Moshiach, as the Torah states, "The spirit of G-d hovered over the water." According to our sages, this refers to the spirit of Moshiach.

We must bring this spirit down into the world so that it rests upon an actual leader who will perfect the world and bring the Redemption. Only through Moshiach will all people and the entire world declare Gd's true unity and sovereignty.
