

DAILY BOOST

2 IYAR

THE TIME OF MOSHIACH

ב"ה

STRAIGHT TO THE TOP

The second day of Iyar is the birthday of the fourth Lubavitcher Rebbe, known as the Maharash. His life was exemplified by his famous aphorism:

When faced with a problem, the world's approach is to try to go under the problem. Only if they can't go under do they try to go over. I say, in the first place we must go straight over the top!

When studying about Moshiach, one might feel that it is a remote concept. After all, there are many stages that must be completed, and the world does not seem to be quite ready in many ways. The lesson from the Rebbe Maharash is that we don't have to wait for anything. Just as G-d took us out from Egypt in the blink of an eye, so too, He can take us out from this exile at any moment. Indeed, we say in our prayers, three times a day, "I await your salvation the entire day." We must expect Moshiach today, at this very moment. After all, as G-d's children and chosen nation, our connections reach the very top.
