GROWING UP

*Rabbi Levi Yitzchak of Berdichev taught that preceding the 9th of Av, every Jew is shown a vision of the third Temple. He explains this concept with a parable of a father who had a valuable garment prepared for his son. The son, however, was not careful and tore the garment. The father had a second garment made for his son, but the son also tore this garment. The father then had a third garment prepared. He did not, however, give it to his son. Instead, he would show it to his son occasionally and say that once [the son] has grown and matured, he will be able to wear the garment.
(Beginning of Pelach HaRimon by R. Hillel of Paritch)*

The Third Beis HaMikdash will be eternal, the work of G-d's hands. G-d shows us a vision of this Temple to motivate and strengthen us to the point that the vision becomes part of our nature, a permanent and eternal change in ourselves.
