A GOOD INSCRIPTION AND SEAL FOR THE MAIN THING

The Rebbe's blessing for Rosh HaShana:

Everyone among all of Israel should be inscribed and sealed for a good sweet year and to [experience] the true and complete Redemption, immediately.

We have already witnessed many signs that the Redemption is imminent, beginning with the words of our sages a number of generations ago, "All end dates have passed, and the matter depends only on teshuvah."

Now, even teshuvah has already been done, and we are all ready. We have been ready for quite a while. May we immediately merit the true and complete Redemption and, starting from this very moment, all Jews, "their youth and their elders ... , their sons and daughters," should be in the Holy Land, in the holy city of Jerusalem.

(Erev Rosh Hashana 5752. Shabbos Parshas Nitzavim-Vayelech, 23 Elul)

As the year comes to a close and the new year begins, let all of our prayers and well wishes be filled with blessings of the Redemption, and may G-d grant all of our requests for good.
