MOSHIACH: PERSON, TEACHER, AND KING

ב"ה

SITTING IN ROME

Moshe was raised in Pharaoh's place. G-d says (Yechezkel 28:18), "I bring forth a fire from your midst." Therefore, the daughter of Pharaoh raised the one who redeemed us from Egypt. Likewise, Moshiach, who will redeem us from the exile of Rome, sits among them in their country. (Medrash Rabbah, Shemos 1:26)

Moshe, the first redeemer, was raised in Pharaoh's house. This challenge gave Moshe the strength to overcome Pharaoh and redeem the Jewish People. Similarly, the current exile serves to bring out the strength of the Jewish People who reside in it, enabling Moshiach to bring the Redemption.

For this reason, the Medrash brings a comparison to fire and wood. The potential for fire is hidden in the wood all along; it must simply be revealed. Similarly, each of us has potential to uncover through our service of Torah and mitzvos. Having this mindset enables us to transform the world, revealing its G-dly source. This inner good is hidden in exile itself and will be revealed in the time of Moshiach.
