THE TIME OF MOSHIACH

ב"ה

TWO STAGES OF MOSHIACH

Moshiach is called by two names, David and Ben David (the son of David). These two names represent two stages in the Redemption. David represents the full revelation of Moshiach, as it says (Yishayah 40:5), "The glory of G-d will be revealed, and all flesh will see as one that G-d speaks." In the first stage, there will be a period called "Ben David" when G-d will not be fully revealed. In this stage, we will still have to encounter and refine negativity, and Moshiach will influence everyone to follow Torah and mitzvos. Moshiach will elevate all of the good in the world to a state of pure good.

After this stage is complete, G-dliness will be revealed in the world, and this, in itself, will nullify any negativity that remains. Indirectly, all evil will be abolished.

So too, we must increase and strengthen our good so that we perceive no negativity, even before the universal revelation of Moshiach.
