MOSHIACH: PERSON, TEACHER, AND KING

ב"ה

FILLING THE VOID

Because Moshiach is a completely new state, the era of Moshiach can come only after the deterioration of the present state.

(Maharal, Netzach Yisroel ch. 32.)

Our sages describe Moshiach as sitting “at the entrance of Rome.” The gate of a city represents its border. Outside the gate, the city ceases to exist. Similarly, at the end of exile, true leadership will decline until it completely disappears. As a result, the people of the world will want to accept Moshiach as king because they will recognize and desire his leadership.

In this odd way, today’s lack of leadership creates the desire and readiness for change. We see this now. It is becoming increasingly obvious that the world’s leaders are at a loss for what to do. As a result, they are looking for true leadership.
