TRUST IN G-D, BELIEVE IN YOURSELF

*When Rabbi Chanina ben Dosa died, there ceased to be men of action. The term “men of action” means those who were confident enough in their status to work wonders.
(Talmud, Sotah 49a, Rashi)*

We must be aware of our true status. By studying Chassidus and following its ways, a person comes to realize that, at his core, his existence is really G-d Himself. When a person spreads these teachings outward, he reveals that G-d is the true existence of the outside world, as well.

This awareness gives a person the strength and confidence to fulfill Torah and mitzvos with complete dedication, despite any apparent obstacles.
