LIVING MOSHIACH

START AT HOME

... Although I have scattered them among the nations, I have been to them as a small sanctuary . . . . (Yechezkel 11:16)

“A little sanctuary” refers to the study halls and houses of prayer. (Talmud, Megillah 29a)

The building of the Third Temple, “G-d’s House,” is one of the central features of the time of Moshiach. We must prepare for this and begin to experience it now by building and enhancing houses of worship, schools, study halls, and charitable institutions.

Furthermore, we must begin by filling our homes with Torah study, prayer, and good deeds, to the point that even our homes become houses of worship, miniature sanctuaries for G-d.
