MOSHIACH: PERSON, TEACHER, AND KING

ב"ה

MOSHIACH NOW

Rabbi Yehoshua ben Levi met Eliyahu.... He asked him, "When will Moshiach come?" "Go and ask Moshiach himself," was his reply. "Moshiach is sitting at the entrance of Rome. You can recognize him because he sits among the poor and the lepers; all of them untie their bandages all at once and then re-bandage them, whereas Moshiach unties and bandages each wound separately so that he will not be delayed if the time comes to redeem them." So Rabbi Yehoshua went to him and asked, "When will the Master come?" He answered, "Today." When Rabbi Yehoshua returned to Eliyahu, he said, "Moshiach deceived me. He said that he would come today, but he has not." Eliyahu answered him, "He was referring to the verse (Tehillim 95:7), "Today, if you will listen to My voice." (Talmud, Sanhedrin 98a)

Moshiach is always ready to come, and nothing can or will delay him once it is time for the Final Redemption. He is only waiting for us to be ready.
