THE TORAH OF MOSHIACH

ב"ה

FAITHFUL SHEPHERD

According to the Medrash, Moshe once saw a lamb stray into the desert. He ran after it and returned it to the flock. G-d chose Moshe to lead the Jewish People because he showed such a high level of personal care.

From this, we learn how precious every Jew is to Moshe, even a Jew who runs from the flock.

Our sages tell us that there is a special connection and resemblance between Moshe, the first redeemer, and Moshiach, the final redeemer. Moshiach, too, will cherish every Jew wherever he will be.

Through this love, Moshiach will bring everyone back to the flock and influence everyone to follow the Torah and its commandments. We, too, must approach every Jew with this love.
