THE TIME OF MOSHIACH

ב"ה

MERITING MIRACLES

R. Joshua compared two verses: It is written, "Behold, one like the son of man will come riding the clouds of heaven." But elsewhere, it is written, "Behold, your king comes to you...lowly and riding on a donkey." If they are meritorious, Moshiach will come riding on a cloud; if they are not meritorious, he will come lowly and riding on a donkey. (Talmud, Sanhedrin, 98a.)

The second stage of Moshiach, when there will be many miracles, follows the first stage, when the world will follow the natural order. Nevertheless, this is not a matter of time, but a matter of merit. If we merit now, we can immediately enter the second stage of Moshiach, and the entire process will be miraculous. This is why the exact sequence of events is not clear; it all depends on our actions and our merits.

We need not wait for Moshiach to come and perfect the world. We must begin perfecting ourselves and the world now, and we will merit the loftiest miracles of Moshiach immediately.
