NEVER ALONE

Come and see how precious the Jewish People are to G-d: In every place they were exiled, the Divine Presence went into exile with them.... So too, when they will be redeemed, the Shechinah will be redeemed with them, as the Torah states (Devarim 30:3), "The L-rd your G-d will return with your captives."

(Talmud Megillah 29a)

We are never alone. Even in exile, G-d is with us. Therefore, nothing will impede the Redemption. No matter how dark the exile might be, and even if it seems that we are not worthy (G-d forbid), G-d will bring the Final Redemption for His sake, as it says (Yishayah 48:11), "For My sake—yes, for My sake—I will do this...."
