THE GUARDED WINE

What is the meaning of the verse (Isaiah 64:3), "No eye has seen it, save G-d's; You made it for those who await You"? This refers to the grape wine that G-d has guarded since the six days of creation. (Talmud, Brachos 34b)

Our sages tell us that G-d made a special wine that He has been guarding since the beginning of time. He will serve this wine at the feast for the righteous in the Time to Come. Wine reveals that which is hidden. When a person drinks wine, he reveals his inner thoughts and feelings. Today, there is a danger in drinking wine because it can enable a person to express anger or negativity. The inner essence of every person, however, is good and G-dly. That inner essence is guarded by G-d, and no evil can enter. The guarded wine represents the revelation of this inner good.

Even now, there are times when a person does not feel his ego, and his inner G-dly spark calls out. Sometimes the soul calls out from the pain of exile, like wine squeezed out of a grape. At other times, the soul shines forth out of G-dly pleasure, like sweet, ripe fruit dripping with juice.
